

Jim felt them clap him on the back. Moss took his hands in his.

"Jim," he gulped, "I want to speak to you as soon as I can see you, about your salary."

Jim hardly heard. He was looking into Myra's eyes and they both wanted desperately to speak to each other just then—about a home.

(Copyright by W. G. Chapman.)

NOW LET EVERYBODY CAKE-WALK! GOOD OLD PRANCING STEPS ARE NEW AGAIN

Here's Some Lively Stepping for Cake-Walkers.

The dizzy drag is the liveliest of the cake-walk steps. As the usual prancing steps are danced the lady looks flirtatiously over one shoulder and then over the other. The man steps from right to left of his partner on every fourth step.

Russia is larger than all of North America,